

What Makes FPDS So Special!

Countdown Google Slides Project

1. Go to slides.google.com and sign into your Google account.
2. Go to slidesmania.com and choose a fun and colorful slides template. Click on it and download it to your Google Slides account. It should then appear in your Slides.
3. Name your file in the top left corner, "your name (first & last)" - FPDS - for example: Carol Brister-FPDS
4. The title slide should include the title: Welcome to FPDS!
by (your first & last name)

5. Slide 2: In large (easy to read font), type: "FPDS is a" at the top with 5 or more words to describe it in the middle and then "school!" at the bottom. See list for adjectives or come up with your own.

6. Slide 3: Write about 4 of your favorite teachers from FPDS. What makes those teachers so special for you? Entitle this slide: "4 of My Favorite Teachers..." You may also add pictures if you'd like, but it is optional.

A worksheet titled "4 of my favorite teachers..." with a decorative border of colorful dots. It contains four boxes, each for a teacher's name and a short paragraph about them.

4 of my favorite teachers...
Mrs. Morgan Mrs. Morgan taught me Kindergarten. She was patient and kind, and took time to teach me letter sounds.	Mrs. Waters Mrs. Waters was my 3rd grade teacher. She was so sweet and calm. I really appreciate how she worked hard to teach me my multiplication facts.
Mrs. Marble Mrs. Marble taught me 4th grade. That was a hard year for me with long division but she really explained it in a way that it clicked for me.	Mrs. Thompson Mrs. Thompson is one of my 6th grade teachers. She is fairly new, but I am really enjoying being in her class this year.

7. Slide 4: Write about 3 of your favorite place on campus and why. What makes those 3 places your favorites and what do you enjoy doing there? Entitle this slide: "3 of My Favorite Places on Campus:" You may also add pictures if you'd like, but it is optional.

A worksheet titled "3 of my favorite places on campus:" with a decorative border of colorful dots. It contains three boxes, each for a place name and a short paragraph about it.

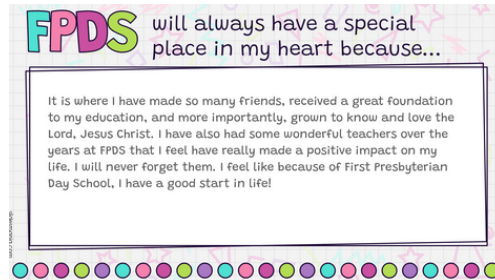

3 of my favorite places on campus:
1. Sanctuary I love the sanctuary because we have spent many days going to Chapel there worshipping, praising, and learning more about God there. One of my favorite things to do in Chapel is sing. I have learned many gospel songs over the years.	2. Playground The playground is my 2nd favorite place because it is there that my friends and I get to hang out, talk, and play during the day.
	3. Innovation Lab Innovation Lab is a cool place on campus with Robots, 3D printers, and iPads that we get to use and play on.

8. Slide 5: Write about 2 of your fondest memories from FPDS. What makes those moments stand out in your mind? How did those moments make you feel? Entitle this page: "2 of My Fondest Memories from FPDS:"

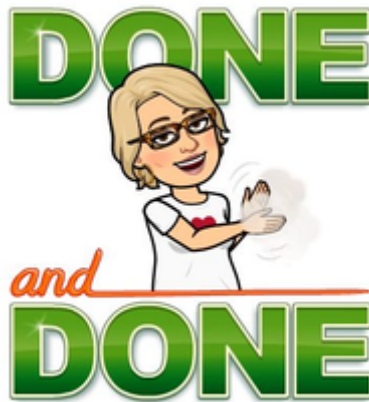

A worksheet titled "2 of my fondest memories from FPDS:" with a decorative border of colorful dots. It contains two boxes, each for a memory number and a short paragraph about it.

2 of my fondest memories from FPDS:
1. One of my fondest memories from First Pres. is the Pep Rallies! We have a great time cheering on the Crusaders and watching the teachers compete in the craziest games. Sometimes, we as students, even get to compete!	2. Another fond memory is Egyptian Day! On Egyptian Day, we dress up like an Egyptian and parade around the school. Afterwards, we go to the gym and participate in all of the fun activities. It's a really fun day!

9. Slide 6: Write about why FPDS will always have a special place in your heart when you move on from this school. Entitle this slide: "FPDS will always have a special place in my heart because..."

10. Go back and add transitions, animations, and double-check all spellings, grammar, and punctuation.
